

GENERAL INFORMATION

About Fullerton College

Founded in 1913, Fullerton College has a rich tradition of student success. As one of five institutions of higher education in the city of Fullerton, the college is an integral part of a complex higher education system. Fullerton College offers a comprehensive academic program of lower division transfer courses and vocational training to prepare students for transfer as well as the technology-driven workplace.

The 83-acre campus features 10 major institutional buildings including conventional classrooms and laboratory facilities for science, art, computer technology, photography, automotive services, physical education, and other specialized programs. A full complement of athletic fields and facilities surrounds the campus.

The college enrolls approximately 21,000 students each semester and employs 315 full-time faculty members, approximately 500 adjunct faculty members, 325 classified employees and 21 managers.
