

ETHNIC STUDIES

Division: Social Sciences

Division Dean

Dr. Jamie Thomas

Faculty

Steven Estrada
Giovanni Hortua
Daniel Lind

Counselors

Mymy Lam
Dr. Therese Mosqueda-Ponce
Daniel Pelletier

Ethnic Studies Transfer Program

Students should consult a counselor or www.assist.org for lower division major requirements for most California public universities. (See the Standard Definitions section of the catalog for a description of ASSIST.) Students transferring to an independent college/university should consult the catalog of the individual school and a counselor for lower division major requirements.

- African-American Studies Associate in Arts Degree
- Chicana/o/x Studies Associate in Arts Degree
- Ethnic Studies Associate in Arts Degree
- Social Justice Studies: African-American Studies Associate in Arts Degree for Transfer (AA-T)
- Social Justice Studies: Asian-American Studies Associate in Arts Degree for Transfer (AA-T)
- Social Justice Studies: Chicana/o Studies Associate in Arts Degree for Transfer (AA-T)
- Social Justice Studies: Native American Studies Associate in Arts Degree for Transfer (AA-T)

At Cypress College, there are Department Program Student Learning Outcomes and Degree & Certificate Program Student Learning Outcomes.

Department Program Student Learning

Outcomes:

The courses taught by this department contribute to the following ISLO/PSLOs: A-Breadth of Knowledge, Competencies, and Skills; specifically, the following ISLO/PSLO subcategories: A1-Social Sciences.

Degree & Certificate Program Student Learning Outcomes:

The program student learning outcomes for each award can be found on the specific degree or certificate page.