

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS

<http://as.fullcoll.edu>

Associated Students (AS) at Fullerton College is the student government organization that represents and serves the student body. Here is a summary of Associated Students at Fullerton College:

1. Purpose: The primary purpose of Associated Students is to advocate for student interests, enhance the student experience, and foster a sense of community on campus. It serves as a platform for student voices and acts as a liaison between students, college administration, and faculty.
2. Leadership and Representation: Associated Students consists of elected student leaders who serve in various positions, including president, vice president, senators, and other executive board positions. These student leaders represent the interests and concerns of the student body and work towards addressing them.
3. Student Advocacy: Associated Students plays a vital role in advocating for student needs and concerns at Fullerton College. They may engage in initiatives related to campus policies, student services, facilities, and academic matters to ensure that student perspectives are considered.
4. Student Activities and Programs: Associated Students organizes and supports a variety of student activities, events, and programs throughout the year. These can include social events, cultural celebrations, workshops, leadership development programs, and student clubs and organizations.
5. Funding and Support: Associated Students manages a budget allocated from student fees and collaborates with other campus departments and organizations to provide resources and support for student-led initiatives, projects, and events. This can include funding for student clubs, scholarships, and campus improvements.
6. Campus Engagement: Associated Students encourages student engagement and involvement in college life. They may facilitate opportunities for students to participate in campus decision-making processes, join committees, and provide feedback on important issues affecting the student community.
7. Service and Outreach: Associated Students may engage in community service activities and initiatives to give back to the local community and promote civic engagement among students. They may also collaborate with external organizations and partners to support causes and events that benefit the wider community.

Overall, Associated Students at Fullerton College is an important organization that represents, supports, and advocates for the student body. It offers leadership opportunities, organizes events and activities, and serves as a platform for student voices, contributing to a vibrant and inclusive college experience.
